Class 2: Thomas - more confident in all areas. Shares knowledge and ideas with excitement and has settled well into life at a new school

Class 3: Jamie - being actively engaged in all tasks all week, with a contagious smile.

Class 4: Harriet - fantastic and enthusiastic attitude to all learning and keen to challenge herself.

Inset Day Friday 25th May

School will be closed to pupils tomorrow for Inset Day. We wish everyone a great half term and look forward to seeing you all again on Monday 4th June.

Bollywood Dancing

Today the whole school took part in a Bollywood Dance day. Each class had a workshop which they thoroughly embraced and enjoyed. The children are really looking forward to performing to their parents at the end of the day!

Class 3 Viking Workshop

Class 3 took part in a Viking Workshop today, delivered by Cas from Hitchin Museum. The children examined a number of artifacts and really enjoyed the experience. Hitchin Museum can be found on Brand Street and is worth a visit.

Class 4 Residential trip to Caythorpe Court

A reminder that Class 4 will be leaving for PGL at 10:30am on Monday 4th June. Children will need their disposable lunch, day bag and luggage. All medication (prescribed or over-the-counter) must be given to Miss Ng ASAP—this includes inhalers, hayfever/allergy medication and travel sickness pills.

Fete Meeting

Thanks to everyone from St John's church and school who came to the Fete debrief meeting last night in ASK. We will be gathering together again in September to start planning for 2019! More details to follow later in the term or early next term.

Many thanks for all the great feedback and suggestions to take us forward.

Book Clubs

The books for next half term's Book Clubs with Mrs Evans are:

Class 4: Oranges in No Man's Land by Elizabeth Laird

Class 3: Charlotte's Web by E B White
